Internship Program for College Students

KNXV's internship program is offered to college juniors, seniors and graduate students interested in broadcast careers. Internships are offered in news (general, investigative, sports, consumer) and new media. The program is designed to introduce students to broadcasting careers and assist them with acquiring the basic skills needed to obtain broadcast employment. Students receive college credit for their participation in the program. Internship opportunities are posted with Arizona State Universities. In addition, information regarding ABC15's program may be found on ABC15's website www.abc15.com and www.scripps.com. From June 1, 2014 to May 31, 2015 eight (8) interns worked closely with a mentor to obtain specific training in various departments (news, sports, consumer, web, Sonoran Living and our investigative unit).

Cronkite School Mentor Program (CMP)

Weekend Morning Anchor/MMJ Allison Rodriguez, Investigative MMJ Lauren Gilger, MMJ Sara Goldengerg, Digital Producer Rudy Rivas, Sr. Producer Stephanie Ingersoll, and General Manager Anita Helt participated in the mentoring program at ASUs Cronkite School for 2014/15

A professional is matched with a freshman in order to give the student insight into the broadcasting industry, give career advice, introduce them to others in the field and to encourage them.

Mentors contact the student at least twice per month in person, by mail, phone, text, etc. to see how they are doing and answer questions. First meeting is in person.

NABEF Media Sales Institute at the Cronkite School

Career Management Program

The station and its employees participate in The E.W. Scripps Company's Career Management Program that includes training to help employees develop their career skills. "MMJ University" is an internal program usually offered onsite that is designed to provide special training for the station's multimedia journalists in reporting, writing and photography. In addition, an eLearning catalog offers all employees the opportunity to pursue career advancement through online training in station-related skills such as computer operation and televisoin editing. The eLearning system is also used for EEO and other mandatory compliance training.

Job Shadowing/Station Tours

The statoin offers tours of the station to schools, youth groups, community groups and other venues to provide a better understanding of the broadcasting industry to the public and to students.

15 tours were given between June 1, 2014 and May 5, 2015. Som of the tours were various boys and gir scout troops, Sonoran Living studio audience and students from the Valley and outside the Valley interested in the televisoin industry.
